Invitation Letter to the IV European Conference on Computational Mechanics: Solids, Structures and Coupled Problems in Engineering

Dear professor Sobol,

The Organizing Committee of the IV European Conference on Computational Mechanics: Solids, Structures and Coupled Problems in Engineering (ECCM 2010) cordially invite you to participate in our conference, which will be held at Palais des Congrès in Paris (France) during 16-21 May, 2010.

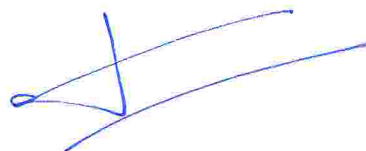

We also are very pleased to inform you that your paper entitled " Singularities of dynamic stress in angular points of elastic prism of compound rectangular cross-section " was accepted for oral presentation at ECCM 2010.

Information on accommodation during ECCM 2010 is available in the website: <https://www.eccm2010.org>. All expenses connected with your stay in France, are assigned to you.

We sincerely hope that you will join us in ECCM 2010. We look forward to welcoming you in Paris.

Yours Sincerely,

Olivier Allix
